On July 22, 2025, after the administration of an instant drug screen, Mr. Howard admitted to using heroin on July 20, 2025. The drug screen revealed that the heroin ingested by Mr. Howard was laced with fentanyl.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Howard admitted to the undersigned officer that he used heroin on July 20, 2025, after running out of his suboxone prescription. The undersigned officer had a lengthy conversation with Mr. Howard regarding the concerns of his relapse and the presence of fentanyl in his system, as fentanyl is an extremely dangerous substance. The undersigned officer advised Mr. Howard that due to his history of substance abuse, the probation office was referring him to residential treatment, which he ultimately agreed to attend. Mr. Howard was referred to Integrity House, Inc. on the same day, with an admission date of July 24, 2025.

On July 24, 2025, the Probation Office received confirmation that Mr. Howard presented for intake at the residential substance abuse program as directed. He was placed at the facility's short-term residential program located in Secaucus, New Jersey. Mr. Howard will remain at the program for a minimum of 28 days and is aware that he must participate in the treatment plan recommended by clinicians.

At this time, we respectfully recommend no formal Court action. The Probation Office will continue to monitor Mr. Howard's progress and compliance at the treatment program. Should additional noncompliance take place, the Court will be notified accordingly. We respectfully await Your Honor's final decision in this regard.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH A. DAGROSSA, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
